

Water Resources

Allan Williams
Director

Education

MSEHE, Environmental Health Engineering, Kansas University

BSCE, Civil Engineering, Kansas University, 1976

BS, Biology, Tulane University, 1973

Contact Information:

J. Edward Kitchen Building
2602 South Elm-Eugene St.
Greensboro, NC 274XX

Ph: (336) 373-2050
Email: allan.williams@greensboro-nc.gov

Career Highlights

City of Greensboro

- Director, Water Resources, 1996 to present
- Director of Utilities

EMA Services, Inc.

- Principal Consultant, 1996

PSG Contract Operations

- Director of Utilities, 1995-1996

City of Jacksonville, Florida

- Director of Public Utilities, 1988-1995
- Deputy Director of Public Works, 1981-1988

Sverdrup Corporation and Coors Brewing

- Engineer

Significant Accomplishments

- In Greensboro revealed major capital and compliance and drought vulnerability and conceived plan to address and rate structuring to support
- Started one of first major recycling programs in Florida and won awards
- Helped City of Jacksonville water and sewer services become respected statewide

Certifications

- Registered Professional Engineer State of NC
- Registered Professional Engineer State of FL (inactive)

Professional Organizations and Memberships

- American Water Works Association
- Water Environment Federation

